Planning Your John Muir Trail Adventure

Best Time to Hike the JMT

Timing is critical when planning your JMT hike. The best months are typically from late July through early September, when snow has melted sufficiently, and weather conditions are more stable. Key considerations for timing:

- Snowpack levels
- Trail conditions
- Permitting availability
- Your personal schedule and experience level

Permits and Regulations

Permits are mandatory for all overnight trips on the JMT. The National Park Service (NPS) manages permits for Yosemite, Kings Canyon, and Sequoia National Parks, which encompass most of the trail. The application process can be competitive, so early planning is essential.

Permit essentials:

- Apply via the National Recreation Reservation System (Recreation.gov)
- Permits are issued for specific start dates and trailheads
- The maximum group size is typically 12 people
- You may need to reserve well in advance (up to a year prior)

Additional regulations:

- Follow Leave No Trace principles
