Confronting Racial Discrimination

Arriving in South Africa in 1893, Gandhi encountered blatant racial prejudice against Indians and other marginalized groups. He faced discriminatory laws, segregated facilities, and social exclusion. These injustices galvanized him to act and marked the beginning of his lifelong commitment to fighting inequality.

Satyagraha: The Power of Truth and Nonviolence mere abstention from physical violence to encompass love, compassion, and respect for all living beings. Gandhi believed that true strength lay in moral conviction, and that violence only perpetuated cycles of hatred and suffering.
