- Raphael Lemkin: A lawyer and scholar from Poland, Lemkin coined the term "genocide" and tirelessly advocated for international recognition and prevention of such crimes. His efforts laid the groundwork for the Genocide Convention.

Sands examines how their ideas, often developed in isolation, eventually converged to influence the creation of international legal frameworks. Their contrasting backgrounds and philosophies highlight the complexity of defining justice after mass atrocities.

Major Themes Explored in the Book

Sands explores how the pursuit of justice has evolved from the Nuremberg Trials to contemporary tribunals. He questions whether justice can truly be achieved after mass crimes and considers the limitations and moral dilemmas faced by legal systems.
