Understanding the Discworld Series

The Concept and Setting of Discworld

Terry Pratchett's Discworld series is a sprawling collection of fantasy novels set on a flat, disc-shaped planet balanced on the backs of four enormous elephants, which in turn stand on the shell of an immense turtle, Great A'Tuin, swimming through space. This imaginative setting serves as a canvas for satirical explorations of real-world issues, politics, religion, and human nature, all wrapped in humor and witty commentary.

The series, which began with "The Color of Magic" in 1983, is notable for its episodic yet interconnected stories, vibrant characters like Rincewind, Granny Weatherwax, and Death, and its inventive world-building.
