Living Books Over Textbooks

Charlotte Mason championed the use of "living books"—well-written, engaging texts that bring subjects to life—over dry, fact-driven textbooks. For literature, this means selecting classic novels, poetry, essays, and stories that evoke emotion, imagination, and thoughtful reflection.

Narration as a Learning Tool

Narration, where children retell what they've read in their own words, helps deepen comprehension and fosters active engagement with the material. This technique encourages children to process and internalize literature rather than passively consume it.

Short, Delightful Lessons
