What Is a Directors Resolution?

A directors resolution is a formal written statement capturing decisions made during a board meeting or through a written resolution process. It serves as an official record of board decisions, ranging from approving financial statements to authorizing significant transactions or appointments.

In New Zealand, the Companies Act 1993 mandates that certain decisions require documented resolutions to ensure transparency, legal compliance, and proper corporate governance. These resolutions act as legal evidence, protect directors and officers, and guide the company's subsequent actions.

Types of Directors Resolutions

- Unanimous Written Resolutions: Used when all directors agree without convening a formal meeting.
- Meeting Resolutions: Passed during a formal board meeting, documented in minutes.
- Special and Ordinary Resolutions: Depending on the significance of the decision, different procedural thresholds are applied.

Legal Significance and Compliance

In New Zealand, resolutions must adhere to statutory requirements, including:

- Proper notice and quorum for meetings.
- Clear articulation of the resolution's intent.
- Proper signing and dating.
- Recording in the company's minutes or resolutions register.

Failure to comply can lead to legal challenges, breaches of directors' duties, or invalid decisions.
