- Availability of Contextual Explanations

Some answer keys provide brief explanations, which might not be sufficient for all learners, especially those unfamiliar with advanced grammar or nuanced vocabulary. Supplementary resources or teacher guidance may be necessary.

- Limited to Practice Tests

The answer key is primarily a correction tool rather than a comprehensive learning resource. It does not replace in-depth grammar books, vocabulary builders, or listening practice.

thinking or reduce exposure to problem-solving strategies that are essential for exam success.
