It now serves as a foundation for professional judging, homebrewing competitions, and educational outreach. The evolution of the BJCP reflects the explosive growth of craft brewing and the increasing importance placed on beer quality and style recognition.

What Is the BJCP?

The Beer Judge Certification Program is a structured educational and certification framework designed to train individuals in beer evaluation, style recognition, and judging. It encompasses a comprehensive beer style guide, a rigorous exam process, and ongoing educational opportunities.

enthusiasts, and those new to judging. It demonstrates foundational knowledge of beer styles, tasting techniques, and evaluation criteria.

- Certified Advanced Beer Judge (CABJ): An advanced certification for seasoned judges with demonstrated expertise, extensive tasting experience, and a broader understanding of beer styles and brewing techniques.

Some regions or events may recognize or emphasize additional specialized certifications or endorsements, but the CBJ and CABJ remain the primary benchmarks.

The Beer Style Guide

A cornerstone of the BJCP is its comprehensive Style Guide, which classifies beers into categories based on appearance, aroma, flavor, mouthfeel, and overall impression. The guide is regularly updated to reflect evolving brewing trends, emerging styles, and industry feedback.

The guide encompasses:

- Main Style Categories: such as Pale Ales, Lagers, Ales, Sours, and Wheat Beers.
- Subcategories: e.g., American Pale Ale, Belgian Tripel, Berliner Weisse.
