Unlike conventional Sunday services, these expressions are characterized by their flexibility, innovation, and contextual sensitivity. the Anglican and Methodist traditions in the UK. It was partly a response to declining church attendance and a recognition that traditional models no longer effectively engage modern society. The Church of England's "Fresh Expressions" initiative, launched in 2005, was a pioneering effort that sought to redefine how church is experienced and understood.

It aligns with a broader global trend of church planting, house churches, and non-traditional worship gatherings.

Features:

- Respect for local customs and practices.
