Specific papers, particularly in subjects like Mathematics and Science, were alleged to have been leaked, raising concerns about the potential advantages gained by those with early access to the questions.

While the exact source and extent of the leak remain unclear, the allegations prompted investigations by AQA and Ofqual, the UK's Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation.

The Nature of the Leak

The leak in June 2014 was characterized by the premature exposure of exam content before the scheduled examination date. Specifically, individuals involved in the process managed to access, distribute, or otherwise disseminate exam papers and answer materials prior to the exam day.

Sources indicate that the leak was not a singular event but involved multiple channels, including:

- Unauthorized access to exam papers within the printing or distribution process.
- Distribution via social media platforms and online forums, making the content accessible to a broad audience.
