Discrimination was often tolerated or ignored, reflecting societal prejudices.

Post-War Era and International Influence

The aftermath of World War II and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) marked a turning point. International bodies, including the United Nations, promoted anti-discrimination principles, leading to the adoption of treaties like the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (ICERD, 1965). These instruments influenced national laws, emphasizing equality as a fundamental human right.

Emergence of Comprehensive Legislation

In the UK, the 1970s saw the enactment of pivotal statutes such as the Equality Act 1970, which laid the groundwork for broader anti-discrimination measures. The evolution culminated in the Equality Act 2010, a comprehensive piece of legislation consolidating previous laws and extending protections across multiple protected characteristics.

Dear [Recipient's Name],

Subject: Formal Complaint of Pregnancy Discrimination

I am writing to formally bring to your attention a matter of concern regarding what I believe to be pregnancy discrimination occurring within [Company/Organization Name]. As a dedicated employee of [Department/Team], I value my role and am committed to contributing positively to our workplace. However, recent experiences have caused me significant distress and prompted me to seek resolution through this official channel.

Incident Description

On [specific date], I informed my supervisor, [Supervisor's Name], about my pregnancy during a routine meeting. Shortly thereafter, I noticed a change in how I was treated compared to my colleagues. Specifically, on [date], I was denied a reasonable accommodation I requested ? [e.g., a modified work schedule due to pregnancy-related health issues] ? despite my supervisor's acknowledgment that such accommodations are standard practice.

Furthermore, on [another date], I overheard a coworker comment, ?Pregnant women should just stay home,? which created a hostile environment. I also observed that my workload was increased unnecessarily after my disclosure, and I was excluded from important meetings without explanation.

Most troubling, on [specific date], I was abruptly reprimanded in front of colleagues for taking a brief rest due to pregnancy-related fatigue, which I believe was discriminatory and unwarranted. This incident has caused me emotional distress and has impacted my ability to perform my duties comfortably.

Impact of the Discrimination

The treatment I have experienced has led to considerable emotional stress, anxiety, and concern for my health and that of my unborn child. It has also affected my morale and confidence at work, which I believe is inconsistent with the protections under the Pregnancy Discrimination Act and our company's policies against harassment and discrimination.

Supporting Evidence

I have attached copies of relevant emails, including my accommodation request, and a record of incidents with dates and descriptions. Witnesses to some of these events include [Names], who can corroborate my account.

Request for Action

I respectfully request that [Company/Organization Name] conduct a thorough investigation into these incidents. I also ask that appropriate measures be taken to prevent further discrimination and harassment, including training for staff and review of policies related to pregnancy and accommodations.

I am hopeful that we can resolve this matter amicably and promptly. I am available to discuss this further at your convenience and can be reached at [your phone number] or [your email].

Thank you for your attention to this serious matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature (if mailing)]
